To: Parents of Pupils in the Junior School

Dear Parents,

Big Booky Breakfast

This year's World Book Day takes place once again on Thursday 7th March and as part of the celebrations, Hollygirt is taking part in the 'Big Booky Breakfast'.

World Book Day is all about celebrating stories and sharing books: just 10 minutes a day of reading makes all the difference. You can share a story anywhere, at any time and with this in mind, we would like to invite you into school on WEDNESDAY 6TH MARCH in order for you to share a story with your child. There will be a range of books available on the day but do feel free to bring in a selection of your own from home if you wish. The Booky Breakfast will be located in the Senior School Hall from 9.00-10.15am and is intended to be a relaxed and informal event, where parents can drop in between these times. The aim of the morning will be for children and parents to share a book together and simply enjoy reading as a pleasurable activity. There will also be performances from various class groups who would like to showcase some of the work they have been doing in their English lessons and refreshments will be provided, including cakes made by Year 6 – all donations welcome!

On the official date of World Book Day (Thursday 7th March), all children are also invited to dress up as a well-known book character.

I hope you can join us for this event; if you could indicate your intention to attend on the slip below, then this will help with the organisation of refreshments.

I look forward to seeing you all.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs C Keyworth
English Co-ordinator
