

13th November 2019

Dear Parents,

NCYW Inter-Generational Seminar Thursday 21st November 2019

Venue: Nottingham Girls' High School

I am pleased to advise that our Year 10 girls have been invited to the NCYW Inter-Generational seminar. This event takes place yearly in Nottingham and Hollygirt have attended in previous years. NCYW (National Council of Young Women) was formed in 2006 by a former Head Teacher to encourage young girls to have a say about how they see their roles in society today. Its "parent association" is the NCW (National Council of Women) who are heavily involved in issues in this country and around the world. During this seminar we will be discussing issues around the topic "New Rules Summit for Young Women". Other topics previously looked at have included; Forced Marriages, the Right to an Education, The Right to be You and how women and girls are seen in other countries, to name but a few.

The girls will leave school at 9.00am and be back in school by 12.45pm. A packed lunch can be ordered for when the girls return, or they can bring their own. Time will be given for a lunch break on their return. It is expected that uniform will be worn.

Please complete and return the reply slip below if you would like your child to accompany us to this event.

If you have any further enquiries about the day, please don't hesitate to contact school.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Morgan/Miss Lau

I give permission for my daughter to attend the Intergenerational Seminar at the Girls' High School on Thursday 21st November 2019. I acknowledge the need for sensible and responsible behaviour on their part. I understand that there is some level of risk in every activity but that this visit will be managed to minimise the risks involved.

I believe my child is medically fit to undertake this activity.
